FROM "IRISH DAILY INDEPENDENT."

FEBRUARY 24th, 1899.

"There is to be a new Irish invasion of the House of Commons. So many people have of late demanded Sir John Power and Co.'s Irish Whisky that the Committee of the House have had to take into consideration, make up their minds that the sale of this drink is illegal. The House of Commons has voted that the sale of this drink is illegal. The agitation for the inclusion of Power's whisky in the lists of liquors supplied at the House bars was, I may mention, started so far back as the beginning of last session. It was purely a matter of taste, not of trade, and up to the present date Sir John Power & Co. were in blank ignorance of the whole affair."
